WEST SOON TO NAME BOY SCOUT COUNCIL

Plans to Have Organization Complete Before Meeting of Directors.

James E. West, who was elected secretary of the National Association of Boy Scouts of America, at a recent meeting of the board of directors in New York, at which Colin H. Living-stone, of Washington, presided, is rapidly completing plans for the election and organization of an executive coun cil and committee for the District of

Although there already are at the Y. M. C. A. and in many schools and Sunday schools of the District scout troops raised and actively engaged in the work raised and actively engaged in the work of the movement, no managing council for the District has yet been formed; and it is desired to choose such a council before the meeting of the national board of directors is held here some time early in February, so that the organization of the boy scouts in the District may be reported as complete in every detail.

Immediately after the holiday rush Mr. West expects to announce the personnel of the councit.

The meeting of the national board of directors will be attended by many notables. President Taft is president of the board and Colonel Roosevelt is vice president. Ernest Thompson committee.

rate, his article had the ring of authority.

When he had read everything that had been printed about the crime he stuffed the papers in the pocket of his overcoat. From all that he had read he concluded that he had not removed all the tracks left by the true criminals on that fateful night and that the evidence which he had provided of his own apparent gulit was not strong enough. A few risplaced pieces of furniture had completely blinded the police. The chier of police had eye and vet could not see. Only the obvious impressed itself on his shallow mind. Despite the missing plate, despite the position of the corpse, clearly pointing as it did to a crime committed by two men, he persisted in his absurd
